PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO STRIKE JURY DEMAND AND SUPPORTING MEMORANDUM OF LAW

COME THE PLAINTIFFS, S.B., a minor student, et. al., and file this Motion to Strike Knox County's Jury Demand (D.E. 71) pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 39(a)(2). They show:

The general rule is that filing of a notice of appeal divests a trial court with jurisdiction. However, the district court retains jurisdiction "to adjudicate matters unrelated to the issues on

I. INTRODUCTION

Knox County conceded in Court that it could not comply with its federal obligation to provide an effective reasonable accommodation for medically at-risk children due to the Governor's Executive Order 84. Knox County stated on the record: "Certainly [KCS] could not offer an effective accommodation." S.B. v. Lee, 2021 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 182674, at *26 (E.D. Tenn. Sep. 24, 2021). Knox County also offered no evidence that it had any difficulties with its own mask mandate in the year prior. (Id. at *61).

Despite these admissions, Knox County recently filed a "demand" for a jury. (D.E. 71). But only judges decide cases of equitable relief like the present case, not juries. Accordingly, Knox County's demand for a jury must be stricken.

I. ONLY JUDGES, NOT JURIES, DECIDE CASES OF PURELY EQUITABLE RELIEF

Plaintiffs have not sought monetary damages. Their complaint is solely in the nature of equitable relief—enjoining the Executive Order and ordering a mask mandate. (See D.E. 7, Am. Compl., ¶¶ 47-49). Again, Knox County already conceded the Executive Order prevented it from invoking a mask mandate and that Knox County had been successful with a mandate previously. Instead of just offering a reasonable universal masking plan for its children, Knox County instead fought against its own admissions, "a poor strategic decision." S.B. v. Lee, 2021 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 195663, at *16 (E.D. Tenn. Oct. 12, 2021). Now it wants a jury.

It has been well-settled since at least the 1800s, and continuing through today, that juries do not decide cases of purely equitable relief, only judges do. E.g., Curtis v. Loether, ppeal." Christmas Lumber Co. v. NWH Roof & Floor Truss Sys., LLC, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 99952, at *3 (E.D. Tenn. June 8, 2020). The jury demand is unrelated to the legal issues on appeal.

415 U.S. 189, 193 (1974) (quoting Parsons v. Bedford, 28 U.S. 433 (1830)(Story, J.)); Osborn v. Griffin, 865 F.3d 417, 460 (6th Cir. 2017); Naturalite v. Hood, 98 F. App'x 401, 403 (6th Cir. 2004); Leary v. Daeschner, 349 F.3d 888, 910 (6th Cir. 2003) ("because Plaintiffs' original complaint involved only claims that were equitable in nature, Plaintiffs were not entitled to a jury trial"); Ferrari S.P.A. Esercizio Fabriche Automobili E Corse v. Roberts, 944 F.2d 1235, 1248 (6th Cir. 1991) ("disgorgement of profits" is equitable, so no jury trial); English v. Que Linda, Inc., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 111795, at *2 (E.D. Tenn. Oct. 20, 2010) (case for solely injunctive relief under Title III of ADA does not allow a jury); accord Red Carpet Studios v. Midwest Trading Grp., Inc., 2021 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 59168, at *3-4 (S.D. Ohio Mar. 29, 2021).

For all these reasons, the demand for jury must be stricken.
